Amal Nassar

Local Church Small Group Resource

This resource is designed to help your small group discussion. It's shaped to inspire you to consider new ways for understanding the mission of the church. Questions are organized in themes. Consider choosing the themes appropriate to your small group context. You don't need to cover all the questions. Allow for a time of response.

Small Group Preparation:

- Video: Amal Nassar, 25 minutes.
- Scripture: Matthew 5:9 and Matthew 5:43–48.
- Participants are encouraged to bring their own journals or writing materials.

Themes explored in the video:

- Personal and Family Story
- Life in Palestine
- Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice

Beginning the conversation

Consider the questions suggested below to start the conversation for your small group. They'll consolidate the content of the video, after you've viewed it.

1. What were the major themes in Amal Nassar's responses?
2. How does Amal Nassar describe Palestinian Christianity? How does she describe Christian peacemaking?
3. Discuss the difficulties of the content. What was difficult to understand? Was there anything you would like to clarify with the group?
4. Theological method: How is Amal Nassar's theology informed and shaped by her practical ministry and cultural context? What approaches does she take in understanding God in the context of her day-to-day struggles and peacemaking activities?

Going deeper

Explore the major themes raised in the video. Critically engage with Amal Nassar's theology. Consider the questions that respond to the issues raised in your preliminary discussion.

1. Personal and Family Story: What strikes you about Amal Nassar's personal story, and the story of her family? How have they struggled? What are their hopes and dreams? How has faith shaped their positive, proactive and peacemaking approaches to a difficult situation?
2. Life in Palestine: How does Amal Nassar describe life for the Palestinian people? How does Christian faith affect the way Palestinian Christians respond to their struggles and difficulties? How does it shape their love, peacemaking, forgiveness, and relationships with others?
3. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: How do believers at the Tent of Nations choose to respond to violence in positive ways? How do they meet violence with love, peace, forgiveness, and embrace?
4. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: Why does Amal Nassar view the planting of olive trees as an act of "planting for peace"?
5. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: How does the Tent of Nations seek to "break the cycle of violence"?
6. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: Why does Amal Nassar want people to visit the Tent of Nations? What practical things can people be involved in, when they visit the tent of Nations?
7. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: Disciples of Jesus build bridges, not walls. They bring people together. How will you express this truth in your daily life?
8. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: Discuss Amal Nassar's encounter (and relationship) with a Jewish settler woman and her husband. What do we learn from this story? What does it teach us about the power of relationships in healing conflicts, and in moving toward peace?
9. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: How does Amal Nassar's faith sustain her in her struggle for peace and reconciliation?
10. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: According to Amal Nassar, how have Palestinians struggled with this? Why is reconciliation and "love of enemies" a daily decision for Palestinian Christians?
11. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: Do you think that Palestinian Christians can be models of love and reconciliation to the whole world?

Application

Ensure the discussion is specifically drawing on your local setting. Make sure the discussion is relevant to the lives of faith for your small group. Encourage relevant and thoughtful examples from each participant.

1. Personal and Family Story: Think about Amal Nassar's personal story, and the story of her family. How does their example encourage you to cultivate positive, proactive and peacemaking approaches to life and conflict?
2. Life in Palestine: How much do you know about life in Israel and in the Palestinian Territories today? Take some time to understand the region by doing the following three things:
 - A. Visit Israel and the West Bank (including Bethlehem Bible College and the Tent of Nations).
 - B. Attend the Christ at the Checkpoint Conference at Bethlehem Bible College. And stay a night or two at the Tent of Nations.
 - B. Work through the material listed under the heading: Movies, Literature & Short Videos on Palestine & Israel

3. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: In your setting, what does it mean to respond to evil with good? Violence with peace? Hatred with forgiveness? Anger with love?
4. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: How will you seek to “break cycles of violence” in your context?
5. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: Today, choose to be a disciples of Jesus who builds bridges, not walls. Express this in your political and religious views, and in your daily life.
6. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: How will you build relationships with people you are in conflict with? How will you allow these relationships to help heal such conflict, and to help move toward peace?
7. Being Peacemakers in a World of Conflict & Injustice: Think about this: Reconciliation and “love of enemies” is a daily decision for Palestinian Christians. How will you make reconciliation, peacemaking, and conflict-transformation a daily and concrete part of your life? How will you seek to address injustices as a peacemaker?

Informing community

Facilitate the space for your group to respond to the discussion. You might consider this section as a personal time of written journal responses to the following questions.

1. What is God encouraging our class and me, to do?
2. In response to the issues raised in the video, what are areas I want to ask God for forgiveness in? How do I need to change? What does God want me to stand up for?
3. How do I need God to minister to me and my community, for us to better engage with the contextual issues of our community?
4. How can I gain a better understanding of what God is doing in Palestine and Israel? What do we ask that God would do in our hearts?

Prayer

Spend time in prayer over what you’ve learnt.

Invite the ministry of the Holy Spirit to clarify, heal, and inspire change for your participants and communities.

Movies, Literature & Short Videos on Palestine & Israel

The following resources have been compiled (thanks to World Vision Australia) to help you get your head around Palestine and Israel. Although it is in no way compulsorily for you to use any of these resources (and this isn't any kind of exhaustive list), we highly recommend these as a starting point to understanding Palestine and Israel.

Over the next few pages, I list movies, literature, and short videos on Palestine and Israel.

Movies Set in Palestine/Israel

Film	Director / Year	Synopsis
With God on Our Side	Porter Speakman Jr / 2010 / USA	With God On Our Side looks at the theology of Christian Zionism, which teaches that because the Jews are God's chosen people, they have a divine right to the land of Israel. Aspects of this belief system lead some Christians in the West to give uncritical support to Israeli government policies, even those that privilege Jews at the expense of Palestinians, leading to great suffering among Muslim and Christian Palestinians alike and threatening Israel's security as a whole. This film demonstrates that there is a biblical alternative for Christians who want to love and support the people of Israel, a theology that doesn't favor one people group over another but instead promotes peace and reconciliation for both Jews and Palestinians.
5 Broken Cameras	Emad Burnat & Guy Davidi / 2012 / Israel & Palestine	5 Broken Cameras is a first-hand account of protests in Bil'in , a West Bank village affected by the Israeli West Bank barrier . The documentary was shot almost entirely by Palestinian farmer Emad Burnat, who bought his first camera in 2005 to record the birth of his youngest son. In 2009, Israeli co-director Guy Davidi joined the project. Structured around the destruction of Burnat's cameras, the filmmakers' collaboration follows one family's evolution over five years of turmoil. The film won a 2012 Sundance Film Festival award, it won the Golden Apricot at the 2012 Yerevan International Film Festival, Armenia , for Best Documentary Film, and was nominated for a 2012 Academy Award .
Waltz with Bashir	Ari Folman / 2008 / Israel	Waltz with Bashir is a 2008 Israeli animated documentary film written and directed by Ari Folman. It depicts Folman in search of his lost memories of his experience as a soldier in the 1982 Lebanon War .
Paradise Now	Hany Abu-Assad / 2005 / USA	Paradise Now is about two Palestinian men preparing for a suicide attack in Israel . It won a Golden Globe for best foreign language film and was nominated for an Academy Award in the same category. "The film is an artistic point of view of that political issue," Abu-Assad said. "The politicians want to see it as black and white, good and evil, and art wants to see it as a human thing."

Literature

Book	Author / year	Synopsis
Blood Brothers	Elias Chacour / 1984 (rev. 2003)	As a child, Elias Chacour lived in a small Palestinian village in Galilee. The townspeople were proud of their ancient Christian heritage and lived at peace with their Jewish neighbors. But early in 1947, their idyllic lifestyle was swept away as tens of thousands of Palestinians were killed and nearly one million forced into refugee camps. An exile in his native land, Elias began a years-long struggle with his love for the Jewish people and the world's misunderstanding of his own people, the Palestinians. How was he to respond? He found his answer in the simple, haunting words of the Man of Galilee: "Blessed are the peacemakers." In Blood Brothers , Chacour blends his riveting life story with historical research to reveal a little-known side of the Arab-Israeli conflict and the birth of modern Israel.
When Helping Hurts	Steve Corbett & Brian Fikkert / 2009	With more than 225,000 copies sold, When Helping Hurts is a paradigm-forming contemporary classic on the subject of poverty alleviation and ministry to those in need. Emphasizing the poverty of both heart and society, this book exposes the need that every person has and how it can be filled. The reader is brought to understand that poverty is much more than simply a lack of financial or material resources and that it takes much more than donations and handouts to solve the problem of poverty.
The Miracle of Peace	David Aikman / 2009	Former TIME Magazine Jerusalem bureau chief David Aikman takes a sober, balanced look at the Middle East, bringing a journalist's mind and a believer's heart to his examination of a region aflame. In a timely and informed exploration of current Mid-East issues that goes beyond headlines and sound bites, Aikman fills in the blanks for thoughtful Christians, accurately tracing recent history and fairly portraying the leaders who have made that history. With a firm grasp on a biblical understanding of Israel's past, present, and future, he turns a critical eye on the political and religious policies of the region's prime players, resorting neither to blind pro-Israeli sentiment nor to reactionary pro-Palestinian bias. Aikman challenges us to a uniquely Christian approach to the Middle East: respect, reason and love, rather than unqualified tolerance on the one hand or religious crusading on the other.
Talking of Conflict	Jane Clements (ed) / 2012	This book began life under the direction of the Forum for Discussion of Israel and Palestine (FODIP), a faith-based charity facilitating dialogue between Jews, Christians, and Muslims on this divisive issue. The project brought together a working group of five scholars from different theological fields, all with an interest in the criteria Christians may use in talking about conflict in general and the Israeli Palestinian situation in particular. What has emerged is a collection of papers with fresh areas of consideration and stimulating invitations to continue the conversation.
