

Dave Bookless –

Being Planetwise: Caring for Creation

Discussion Guide

This resource is designed to help your small group or college class discussion. It's shaped to inspire you to consider new ways to understand the issues discussed in this video. You don't need to answer all the questions. Please allow time for discussion and response.

Materials

1. Person Interviewed: Dave Bookless
2. Theme of Video: Being Planetwise: Caring for Creation

Preliminary discussion

Consider the questions suggested below to start the conversation for your small group or college class. They'll consolidate the content of the video, after you've viewed it.

1. What were the major themes in this video?
2. How do those themes relate to your life and context?
3. Discuss the difficulties of the content. What was difficult to understand? Was there anything you would like to clarify with the group?
4. Theological method: How is the interviewee's theology and outlook informed and shaped by their practical ministry and context? What approaches do they take in understanding God in the context of their daily life and ministry?

Explore and apply

Explore the major themes raised in the video. Critically engage with the theology. Consider the questions that respond to the issues raised in your preliminary discussion. Apply the answers to these questions in your own setting. Ensure the discussion is specifically drawing on your local setting. Make sure the discussion is relevant to the lives of faith for your small group or college class. Encourage relevant and thoughtful examples from each participant.

1. Bookless is the Director of Theology for A Rocha International. What is A Rocha, and what does it do?
2. How do these five guiding principles shape what A Rocha does? - Christian, Conservation, Community, Cooperation, and Cross-Cultural
3. What are some of the key biblical themes that should inform our understanding of 'creation care'?
4. How do you see 'creation care' as the missing strand in most Christians' understanding and practice today?
5. What does Bookless say about the transformation of a 90-acre derelict urban wasteland in London into a nature reserve and country park?
6. Why do you think the Western church is addicted to materialism, despite all that Jesus spoke about?
7. Bookless has done research into a biblical understanding of the value of nonhuman creatures. What does he say about his research and what he's discovering?
8. Bookless' book 'Planet-wise' shows how we can live out 'creation care' in discipleship, worship, lifestyle and mission. How do we express care for creation in these areas?
9. In what way do you see Micah playing a part in God's mission?
10. What can Majority World, indigenous, and/or diaspora Christians teach Western Christians today (and the worldwide church)? (e.g. in the areas of community, discipleship, theology, ministry, mission, etc.).

Informing Community

Facilitate the space for your group to respond to the discussion. You might consider this section as a personal time of written journal responses to the following questions.

1. What is God encouraging our group and me, to do?
2. In response to the issues raised in the video, what are areas I want to ask God for forgiveness in? How do I need to change? What does God want me to stand up for?
3. How do I need God to minister to me and my community, for us to better engage with the contextual issues of our community?
4. How can I gain a better understanding of the issues discussed in this video? What do we ask that God would do in our hearts?

Prayer

Spend time in prayer over what you've learnt.

Invite the ministry of the Holy Spirit to clarify, heal, and inspire change for your participants and communities.
