

Greg Lake – Responding to Asylum Seekers, Refugees, & Global Movements of People

Discussion Guide

This resource is designed to help your small group or college class discussion. It's shaped to inspire you to consider new ways to understand the issues discussed in this video. You don't need to answer all the questions. Please allow time for discussion and response.

Materials

1. Person Interviewed: Greg Lake
2. Theme of Video: Responding to Asylum Seekers, Refugees, & Global Movements of People

Preliminary discussion

Consider the questions suggested below to start the conversation for your small group or college class. They'll consolidate the content of the video, after you've viewed it.

1. What were the major themes in this video?
2. How do those themes relate to your life and context?
3. Discuss the difficulties of the content. What was difficult to understand? Was there anything you would like to clarify with the group?
4. Theological method: How is the interviewee's theology and outlook informed and shaped by their practical ministry and context? What approaches do they take in understanding God in the context of their daily life and ministry?

Explore and apply

Explore the major themes raised in the video. Critically engage with the theology. Consider the questions that respond to the issues raised in your preliminary discussion. Apply the answers to these questions in your own setting. Ensure the discussion is specifically drawing on your local setting. Make sure the discussion is relevant to the lives of faith for your small group or college class. Encourage relevant and thoughtful examples from each participant.

1. Recently, Greg Lake served with the Australian Department of Immigration and Border Protection. What was his journey into this role?
2. What did this role involve?
3. What did he experience that disturbed him?
4. What did he experience that gave him hope?
5. What is God convicting him about (what convictions are emerging in his heart) in his journey with refugees, asylum seekers, and undocumented immigrants?
6. What is God doing among the global movements of people today?
7. What biblical or theological themes inform our understanding of how we should treat refugees, asylum seekers, and undocumented immigrants?
8. How can local churches become more fully engaged and involved in refugees, asylum seeker, and undocumented immigration issues?
9. How can local churches become more fully engaged and involved in other issues around the global movements of peoples?

Informing Community

Facilitate the space for your group to respond to the discussion. You might consider this section as a personal time of written journal responses to the following questions.

1. What is God encouraging our group and me, to do?
2. In response to the issues raised in the video, what are areas I want to ask God for forgiveness in? How do I need to change? What does God want me to stand up for?
3. How do I need God to minister to me and my community, for us to better engage with the contextual issues of our community?
4. How can I gain a better understanding of the issues discussed in this video? What do we ask that God would do in our hearts?

Prayer

Spend time in prayer over what you've learnt.

Invite the ministry of the Holy Spirit to clarify, heal, and inspire change for your participants and communities.
