

Joshua Bogunjoko –

Joining with God in Local and Global Mission

Discussion Guide

This resource is designed to help your small group or college class discussion. It's shaped to inspire you to consider new ways to understand the issues discussed in this video. You don't need to answer all the questions. Please allow time for discussion and response.

Materials

1. Person Interviewed: Joshua Bogunjoko
2. Theme of Video: Joining with God in Local and Global Mission

Preliminary discussion

Consider the questions suggested below to start the conversation for your small group or college class. They'll consolidate the content of the video, after you've viewed it.

1. What were the major themes in this video?
2. How do those themes relate to your life and context?
3. Discuss the difficulties of the content. What was difficult to understand? Was there anything you would like to clarify with the group?
4. Theological method: How is the interviewee's theology and outlook informed and shaped by their practical ministry and context? What approaches do they take in understanding God in the context of their daily life and ministry?

Explore and apply

Explore the major themes raised in the video. Critically engage with the theology. Consider the questions that respond to the issues raised in your preliminary discussion. Apply the answers to these questions in your own setting. Ensure the discussion is specifically drawing on your local setting. Make sure the discussion is relevant to the lives of faith for your small group or college class. Encourage relevant and thoughtful examples from each participant.

1. Joshua is the International Director for SIM. What did you learn about SIM, and about his role there?
2. How did Joshua come to know Christ personally?
3. What pivotal moments confirmed for him that he needed to obey God's call to mission?
4. What does a "call" by God to missions look like, and how can people know if they have such a call?
5. How active is the Nigerian church in missions today, both in Africa and abroad? Is it common for Nigerians to be missionaries today?
6. The world has seen much tension and violence between Christians and Muslims. How should Christians respond to Muslims?
7. What are the greatest challenges facing the church today?
8. What social and ethical issues must the church address today?
9. How would you define integral mission?
10. What is the mission of the church? How does it pursue this mission?
11. In what way do you see Micah playing a part in God's mission?
12. How can the church renew its theology and ministry and mission?
13. How can the church activate all of God's people in mission and ministry?
14. How can the church make disciples of Jesus?
15. What can Majority World, indigenous, and/or diaspora Christians teach Western Christians today (and the worldwide church)? (e.g. in the areas of community, discipleship, theology, ministry, mission, etc.).
16. What else struck you in this interview?

Informing Community

Facilitate the space for your group to respond to the discussion. You might consider this section as a personal time of written journal responses to the following questions.

1. What is God encouraging our group and me, to do?
2. In response to the issues raised in the video, what are areas I want to ask God for forgiveness in? How do I need to change? What does God want me to stand up for?
3. How do I need God to minister to me and my community, for us to better engage with the contextual issues of our community?
4. How can I gain a better understanding of the issues discussed in this video? What do we ask that God would do in our hearts?

Prayer

Spend time in prayer over what you've learnt.

Invite the ministry of the Holy Spirit to clarify, heal, and inspire change for your participants and communities.
